Volume 58

"A yearbook has more lives than a cat." It touches the hearts of our 628 students, their parents and of course, friends. It is a memory book, a family album of our school. It is among the select few possessions one keeps throughout one's life.

To be a successful publication, a yearbook must fulfill its obligation to the student and school. If a student, perusing his yearbook, can remember and enjoy again an accomplishment, the yearbook has succeeded. If the actions in school by teachers, administrators and students are correctly portrayed, then the yearbook has succeeded.

The Twice Chosen One

Mr. Riley, once again we dedicate our yearbook to you for you have done so much for us. You have been patient, understanding and helpful when we needed it most. You not only supervised Student Government Day, but formed the debating teams and the Mock UN Session, yet you felt you had not done enough. You were our football and track coach. Besides being our teacher and coach, you were our friend as well. You laughed when we laughed; were sad when we were sad; no matter what the circumstances were, you fitted in as one of the "gang." And now, as we Seniors, as well as yourself, depart from WHS, we feel as if we have gained a life-long friend. In showing our appreciation for your countless givings, we thank you over and over by dedicating our long hours of rewarding work to you, Mr. Riley, our teacher, coach...our friend.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
MR. LOWELL MYERS

Superintendent of Wellsville City Schools is Lowell Myers, a pleasant, soft-spoken man. Mr. Myers has worked hard to improve our schools in every way. His sincere dedication and interest deserves the respect and admiration of the community.

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
MR. WILLIAM MENOUGH

A busy, energetic man, Mr. William Menough is the principal of Wellsville High School. We appreciate his efforts which are directed at making the students realize the importance of education and helping them become mature young men and women.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
Mr. Donald Lowe

Mr. Donald Lowe, the assistant principal, is always in close contact with the students. Friendly and understanding, he helps them with their problems. His patience and tirelessness are rare qualities which are recognized and appreciated by everyone.

Concert

This year, the choir, under the fine direction of Miss Izak, "sang" their way to the state finals held in Columbus, Ohio, where they received an "excellent" rating! Also during their active year, they held their annual Christmas and Spring Concerts which received standing ovations! We are all proud of the great group, Miss Izak and the officers: Pres. - Debbie Bemis, V. Pres. - Dave Bush, Sec. Treas. - Sue Bell.

SPORTS

Our Cheerleaders

Becky Davidson, Beth Todd, Sharry Dinch, Penny Pringle, Carole Robinson.

The Varsity cheerleaders of WHS, attended summer camp at Kent State University where they competed with other cheerleader squads from around the state. The first night there, they received a third place rating and, although disappointed, accepted it as a challenge. What they needed was more enthusiasm and group personality. By working hard to improve, they took first places the remainder of the week and to their delight - a first place in final competition.

Reserve

Mary Corbisello, Sonnie Richards, Cheryl Cable, Francie Hawk, Absent - Vicki Baker; Vicki Cataldo.

Class Officers — '68

Sec. Mary Hamilton, Pres. Darrell West, Class Sponsor: Mr. Tuttle, Treas. Karen Chema, Vice Pres. Mel Wohrley.

The Class of 1968, under the capable leadership of Mr. John Tuttle, class sponsor, and hardworking officers, had an active and memorable year. They were thrilled to receive their class rings in early November. Later in the month, they presented their play, "Junior Miss" with Judy Kemeny in the lead. Other money-making projects included the selling of candy and operation of the basketball concession stand. The Juniors spent their money, along with much time, on the annual Junior-Senior Prom held at Virginia Gardens in Chester, West Virginia. They chose as a theme "Chez Paris." Prom night was a fitting climax for an exciting year. Now the Juniors are looking forward to becoming the new graduates of WHS.

"Junior Miss" — Class Play

The Class of 1968 presented "Junior Miss" as their Junior Play with Judy Kemeny playing the lead roll of Judy. In this wacky comedy, she and her best friend, Fluffy, portrayed by Sharon De-Lauder, turned their homes and families upside down. It all started when Judy supposedly saw her father, Dick Cheatwood, kissing his secretary, and in attempt to keep the family together, she loses her father's job. But before the play is over, Judy retrieves his job and causes a surprise marriage. Mr. Caporossi has done it again! Congratulations to him and the entire cast!!

SENIORS PERFORM WELL IN PRESENTING ANNUAL PLAY

Highly talented members of the Senior Class of Wellsville High School presented "Goodbye, My Fancy," Thursday and Friday evenings at the high school auditorium.

While the 45-member cast performed with great ability and ease, the play itself left much to be desired. It lacked depth, plot, surprise and the ability to hold one's attention.

The story concerns a liberal Congresswoman who returns to her college alma mater for a weekend visit. A former newspaper woman who has seen the actual horrors of war, she takes with her a film to be shown to college seniors. Considered harsh and improper, the film is cancelled by the board of directors, only to be re-scheduled by a cowardly college president who at the last moment finds his backbone.

Colleen Broderick, portrayed the aspiring Congresswoman with all the dignity and esteem the role calls for. Also performing with great ability were Beth Todd, Lin Thrasher, Debbie Bemis, Carole Robinson, Arlene Pelly, David Bush, Rich Hall, Paul Sirianni, and Wilbur Waggoner.

Special credit is to be given Margaret Gunther, who portrayed the role of an "ancient" professor who burst upon the set at any given moment.

Some 36 members of the senior class were featured in other parts. The cast is the largest ever to present a senior play in Wellsville.

Special recognition is also to be given Charles Cross who designed and built the magnificent set design for the play. The stage was transformed into a luxurious sitting room in the college, done in shades of antique green and gold.

The direction was handled by Joseph Caporossi, who has served Junior and Senior classes for many years. As always he turned out another great production for area residents. Assisting Caporossi was Steve Weir, student director.

THEY PUT OUT A FIRE!

Again the annual event of Student Government rolled around and again petitions were circulated, students campaigned for certain offices and finally election day came.

The results of the election were: Mayor - Beth Todd, Debbie Bemis - Safety Service Director, Jeff Wain - Chief of Police, John Roberts - Fire Chief, Bob Morehead - Pres. of Council and Steve Weir - Auditor. A resolution was passed by Council declaring June 2, 1967, Senior Clean-Up Day.

Next to Fire Station

Now that we are Seniors and are leaving WHS for our final time, we can look back on our past four years of high school and recall the numerous fun times as well as sad times. We can see quite clearly now what people mean when they say, "those were the best years of my life." We only hope the oncoming underclassmen will realize that high school days can never be relived so when they, as well as ourselves look back through this yearbook, a few cherished moments can be recounted. We sincerely thank those who have made this yearbook a successful one.

The 1967 Annual Staff

"This is not the end.
It is not even the beginning of the end.
It is rather the end of the beginning."
